Rev Dr. and Mrs Hall were visitors to Calgary on Saturday.

Ferdina d VanTighem has enlisted with the 82nd. He leaves Strathmore on December 1st.

Ladies stopping at the Maple Leaf will get all the courtesies possible shown them.

Editor John Mackenzie of Calgary spent the weekend in Strathmore, presumably in quest of the needle.

Mrs W. C. Brown entertained the Presbyterian Ladies Aid at the home of Mrs. F. R. Lilly on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ida Mackenzie, Strathmore is enrolled a student at the Olds Agricultural College and is taking up the subject of domestic science.

The tea room at the Bakery becomes more popular daily, on account of the excellent coffee and tea served, at moderate prices.

Ladies Rest Room in connection.

Mrs and Mrs W. F. Grafton, of Errington, B. C. have taken up their residence in Calgary. Mr and Mrs Grafton are well known to the people of Strathmore, having resided here some few years ago. Mr Grafton was in the employ of the C. P. R. here.

The annual Roast Fowl Supper under the Auspices of the Methodist Ladies Aid will be held in the basement of the church on Monday Nov. 22nd commencing from 5 o'clock p. m. An entertainment will be given in the auditorium of the church after 7 o'clock.

The auction sale at the farm of C. P. R. Bruce of Cluny, will be held on Wednesday Dec. 8th. As some advertising matter has been distributed for the sale on another date farmers should pay particular attention to this change of date.

J. W. Scott of Chadwell, left this week on a visit to his old home in Kentucky. The good crop this year will mean that quite a number will visit their home States this coming winter who will doubt tell of the glories of life and prospects of Sunny Alberta. Mr Scott writes that he wants to be informed as to the brand of weather we are being handed out here whilst he is away.

Mrs E. E. Zerkle was a visitor to Calgary on Saturday.

A letter has been received from W. L. Wood, who was recently wounded. He is making a good recovery.

Messrs Earl Scheer, Trella Worthington and Leslie West are attending the Olds Agricultural College during the winter months.

A meeting of the Patriotic Society will be held at the home of Mrs VanTighem on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, to which all ladies of the town are invited.

Mr Wyllie, of Edmonton, spent a few days in Strathmore this week looking after his own property here and renewing old acquaintances.

Dr. Rutherford, Messrs Campbell, McFarland and Daniels, all of Calgary, were visitors to Strathmore on Monday in the interests of the C. P. R. demonstration farm here.

Mr J. W. Cope returned on Friday from Richards, Alaska, where he has been visiting his son for the past two months. He reports that crops are good in that district and that they will average from 40 to 45 bushels per acre.

There was no meeting of the U. F. A. on Saturday afternoon. Only three farmers were present. The busy season may have had some deterring influence, but it is hoped that for the benefit of the farmer himself he will consider it a privilege as well as his duty to turn up at every meeting held for his personal advancement.

Friday Dec. 23rd—The Grand Annual Bazaar of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid will open at 3 p. m. A good programme is being prepared for afternoon and evening. A special feature of the day will be the Maypole and Sword Drills.

Word has been received from George Wade who left some six weeks ago with the 12th mounted. They have arrived in England and are enjoying the life over there well. The discipline is very severe, but he states that that will be a benefit to them. They are billeted out in huts which have accommodations for fifty men. Heat, light and food is all of the best and they are very comfortable at nights having beds composed of a mattress and five blankets. He states that the food on board the troopship was not very good. They are stationed at Bramshot, Hampshire.

Patriotic Meeting

An enthusiastic and well attended meeting of the local branch of the Patriotic Society was held at the home of Mr and Mrs W. E. Brown on Friday evening last. Mrs. VanTighem occupied the chair, as president pro tem.

Mrs Allen who had up to this time acted very efficiently in the capacity of President of the Society, sent in her resignation which was accepted with much regret; the company expressing their appreciation of the very excellent work that had been accomplished during her presidency. Mrs (Dr) Girvin was elected as president in her stead.

It was decided to open a down town office in order to facilitate the work of the society, and consequently, the office known as Burnham's old office on 10th and Street, is being occupied as the headquarters of the society. This office will be open on Saturday afternoon next from 2:30 to 5 o'clock, and it is expected that after this week, ladies will be in attendance every day, except Sunday, to receive contributions and also to hand out the necessary goods for sewing, etc.

The Advisory Committee composed of Messrs Brown, McElhoes, Bole, Way and Mackenzie, the convenor being Mr W. E. Brown suggested that a publicity campaign be commenced at once for the purpose of raising funds for the society. Literature is to be procured and spread broadcast throughout this section of the country. A public meeting will also be held in the near future at which it is expected that R. B. Bennett, M.P., Dr. Clark, M.P., or some other very prominent and powerful speaker will address the gathering. The amount apportioned to the Glischen constituency for the present year is $40,000, and it is hoped that by a thorough canvass of the town and country that Strathmore and district will do more than its share in this respect and thus help along good work of the society.

Farmers and farmers' wives are invited to call at the office and hand in their contributions or take along with them material for sewing. Full instructions as to how to complete the work will be readily given, and any information that may be desired regarding the aims and objects of the Patriotic Society will be imparted to any worthy enquirer. Contributions may also be handed in to Mrs T. E. Wright, who is acting as secretary of the local branch.

Women's Institute Meeting

A meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs Boortz on Saturday afternoon. There were quite a goodly number of ladies present. Mrs Falkner, president, occupied the chair. It was decided to make a donation of $10.00 to the local branch of the Patriotic Fund and also a donation of $10.00 to the local branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Where the Hardest Fighting is Taking Place.

This map of Serbia shows the extremely mountainous character of the country and also the railroad lines. With focus on all sides except the south and an insignificant stretch of boundary on the northwest where Roumania adjoins, Serbia has a battle line almost as long as that in Russia. Montenegro off the west, of course, is fighting on the side of the Serbs, but in Albania the situation is such that the Serbs have put 25,000 soldiers into the country to put down disorders.

After the business of the meeting was transacted, a light luncheon was served consisting of tea, sandwiches and cake, through the kindness of Mrs Boortz.

The members of the Women's Institute are very anxious that these meetings should become very popular amongst the ladies of the town and country, and to this end a meeting will be held at the home of Mrs Boortz on Tuesday afternoon, November 30th, when demonstrations of cake and candy making will be given by some of the members. It is hoped that this will prove to be an interesting meeting and the members are looking forward in anticipation to being favored with a large gathering of the ladies of the town and country. Remember the day, Tuesday Nov. 30th.

Shall Churches Unite?

The vote to determine whether the Presbyterian church and the local Presbyterian church, and the Congregationalists is now being taken in all parts of the Dominion. Ballots have been distributed among the members and adherents of the local Presbyterian church, and instructions are that they must be returned by December 1. The question will be decided by the votes of the Presbyterian all over Canada, and the result will not be officially made known until the general assembly of the church next June.

The proposed basis of union has been accepted by both the Methodists and Congregationalists and was approved by the general assembly of the Presbyterian church at its meeting this summer. The vote now being taken is the deciding factor, and while it is not known what majority next year's assembly will demand as favorable, it is generally expected that an ample majority will be polled by the vote now being taken.

The Cow Case

What is known as the Cow Case, figured in the Supreme Court at Calgary on Monday. The matter took the form of an appeal by Walter Dawkins, poundkeeper Strathmore, for the town of Strathmore, and the respondent was Frederick H. Tucker, bailiff, Strathmore.

The points at issue were discussed before Judge Stewart, the poundkeeper being represented by Mr J. J. Pettie Barrister, and Mr Tucker represented by Mr E. A. Mackay, of Lent, Jones Mackay and Mann, of Calgary, bailiff, Strathmore.

Judgment was reserved by the judge.

GIVE THE WIFE HER FAIR SHARE OF THE CROP

She Deserves a Monarch

Be fair to the women folks this year. A share of the crop is justly theirs. You will buy your new mowder or plow or binder—whatever you need. Why not surprise the wife by saying, "What will you have for your share, Ma?" A wise woman will say "A new MONARCH range." She knows that the MONARCH is the greatest labor saver and the most efficient machine she can put into her department. There are plain reasons why it is best, and you can see and understand the reasons if you'll look.

Come in and let us show you how the MONARCH saves work, time and real money, not only when new but for years and years.

THAT'S THE BIG POINT TO CONSIDER. THE MONARCH IS BUILT SO IT WILL GIVE THE SAME SATISFACTORY SERVICE AFTER MANY YEARS OF USE AS WHEN NEW.

IS THE WAR RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FINANCIAL STRINGENCY?

It is generally a melancholy business to talk of what might have been. It is still more depressing now to make remarks of what has actually taken place in the term of war. We listen, then, with both ears when a person tells us that the war has been a blessing and that our lot might have been a great deal worse than it is only for this war. Speaking of Canada alone, and especially the Western provinces, this is what many thinking men do say. Think it over yourself and you will soon come to the conclusion that it is reasonable.

Financial stringency—which is only another phrase for hard times—did not begin with the war. Since early in the year 1913 everyone has been complaining about the tightness of money. For a year before the big oil boom there was a regular famine for speculators. A resolution was under way to overthrow the land grabbers and real estate speculative workers. The oil boom for Alberta was the last fling of the gamblers. To undo their work was bound to be a long job. Eastern Canada was in the same fix. Real estate and joint stock companies had absorbed all the spare cash. It was going to be a slow and serious business to get people from the game of winning and losing money to the work of producing and saving it. Certainly the war has helped in this process.

At the present time there are one hundred thousand men in Canada alone, making munitions. How many more are there making things that would not be needed only for the war? Here are men given a much needed chance to produce something. The old reliable producers, the farmers, are getting more for their produce than ever before. The back-to-the-land movement, if it succeeds, will owe a great amount of its success to the war. The war is proving to be one of the best stimulants we ever had to production.

And if anything puts people into the habit of saving it is war news. All the talk of all the wise men in the country couldn't reach the prosperous to economize like the short announcement "England declares war on Germany." This probably has been carried too far, instead of rationally saving money, some people have begun to sell all their things they have become so fond and hang onto every nickel they can lay their hands upon. In this aspect of the situation; like probably the most acute problem of the present time, from gambling to thrift, has been a much easier step in war time than it would have been in times of peace.

So far as our money interests are concerned, then, the big scrap has done us some good. We spend a lot of public money, but we borrow that. A large part of it goes to the upkeep of soldiers and their families.

Nearly all the rest of it goes to private businesses throughout the country. Not all of it is permanently wasted.

True there are quite a number of business firms that have been crippled or even killed by war conditions, the loss to these victims, however, must be more than fully offset by the gains of farmers and other workers. The problem is to decide when business losses are really due to the war and not to the depression that is inevitable—war or no war. What might have been in peace—Well as to Alberta and Canada is concerned it could easily have been a whole lot worse.

Literary Club Officered

On Tuesday evening of last week, a meeting was held at the Rectory at which it was decided to hold meetings of the Literary Club as formerly during the winter months. The following were elected as officers of the society for the ensuing term: President, Rev Mr. Hall; Vice-President, Mrs. McNair; Secretary, Miss Martin; Librarian, Mr. W. E. Brown; Critic, Mr. Niddler; Pianist, Mrs. Clark.

The first regular meeting of the Club will be held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Brown on Tuesday evening next at 8 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Owen, B.A., will give a paper on "Tennyson." A very cordial invitation is extended to all those who are interested in the aims and objects of the Literary Club. It is intended at an early date to publish a programme of the subjects to be discussed at these meetings.

Sequel to Motor Car Accident

A wage case was heard before Justices Lambert and Vickery on Friday noon, 12th.

The complainant, being F. Hirschhorn who laid information against W. Puc, (who is now at the front) per Robert Kerr, ss manager and foreman who refused to pay the sum of $12.80 for wages due complainant for work done in part of October and November, 1915.

The defense offered by the defendant was that he had been paid by the manager of one of the banks not to pay any wages due until the complainant had settled up for his share of the damage done to a motor car which had been wrecked some time ago, when three men had been brought to Dr. Girvin's Surgery in an unconscious state.

The Justices took the stand that they would not accept as evidence what the bank manager had told the defendant, but that defendant could take civil action for alleged damages to the car by the complainant if he so desired.

Judgment was therefore given in favor of complainant for full amount of claim and costs against defendant.

News from the Front

Dear Editor,

Just a line to let you know we are all O. K. It is quite a while since I wrote you last, but as far as we are concerned there has been very little doing.

I understand there is a rumour going around regarding Yorkie Carroll, being wounded. He has not been wounded. You will understand he had an accident on Salisbury Plains, to his wrist. It was broken and not set properly. He is now somewhere in France having it put under X-ray.

He has not lost the use of his arm, and not likely to. I have seen Guy Cole and his brother and had a talk with them. I am now at Sgt. Munro, late of the Northwest Mounted Police at Calgary. He is in the same regiment as Guy.

Johnny Wilson has just got his command. He is put under X-ray.

I am pleased to see by the Standard that Strathmore will soon have enrolled 100 men. That takes some beating for a small Western town like the Strathmore.

Waldman met Doc Farrell last week; he is an officer in the A. V. C. Kind regards from the boys and myself.

"The Staff Of Life"

Bread is recognized theoretically as the staff of life, but many people do not appreciate that this is literally true. We frequently carry our meat and vegetable "diet," but we never change from bread to something else, because there is NO SUBSTITUTE for bread. Many people are misled under sanitary conditions from the fact that the wheat is grown in the best of soil and climate and is milled to make pure and clean in quality and baking strength.

Free Maps for Schools

The attention of the Department of the Interior having recently been drawn to the fact that a number of schools throughout Western Canada are looking in more illustrative of the general topography of the Province of Alberta, etc., the Honorable De Meillon has announced that several useful departmental publications are available for distribution amongst the vast educational institutions throughout the Province. Included in the number is an interesting map of the Dominion which shows general information with respect to railways, cities and towns, etc.

In view of present financial conditions and the spirit of economy which is prevalent, advantage is being taken, to a very marked extent, of the opportunity afforded to procure free of charge literature which can be used advantageously for educational purposes.

Christmas Gifts for Canadian Soldiers

The National Service Committee, the coalition government for war purposes of all the prominent women's organizations such as the National Council of Women, the Daughters of the Empire, the United Empire Loyalists, the Women's Institutes and others have initiated a national campaign to carry out a very happy and ingenious Christmas idea.

On Christmas morning every one of the hundred thousand soldiers of our national army in Europe is to receive a national Christmas present emblematic of the Canadian good wishes of every town and city and province of the Dominion. For the occasion Canada is to become St. Nicholas on an unprecedented scale. Our "Lady of the Snows" will be known henceforth as "Our Lady of the One Hundred Thousand Christmas Presents."

It is proverbially a difficult thing to select Christmas gifts, but in making their choice, the National Service Committee have the assurance of General Alderson who is in command of our forces overseas that their present is of the utmost possible practical value to the men at the front.

Our National Christmas box is a pocket book containing writing paper, envelopes and pencils. It will be suitably inscribed "Christmas Greeting to our Canadian Soldiers from their Canadian Home," and will be preserved not only for its utility, but for its value as an historical memento.

It will form part of every soldier's kit, as an eloquent certificate of a gift from each individual of Canada, fitting with him, carried on his person wherever he goes it will be as precious as it were, a link between our soldier and his country. It will be a symbol of Canadian unity, more full of meaning than the much vaunted Iron Cross.

The value of these one hundred thousand presents will be like the value of all true Christmas gifts, their intrinsic, sentimental value. Their cost in cash will be only $25,000—representing 100,000 quarters from 100,000 donors, or less than one-third of a cent from each inhabitant of Canada.

The whole point of this National Christmas gift is that it should represent as many donors in as many communities as possible. If the whole amount were subscribed in one city or one province the gift would lose its significance. The subscription list of a national gift should be national in character. It should be like a petition to Parliament. It should contain as many names as possible.

In view of the small amount of money asked for this campaign of the women of Canada, acting through the National Service Committee, it is not in the strict sense a campaign to collect money, but rather to call from every town and corner of Canada a gesture of patriotic sentiment and to convey to our troops a tangible symbol of admiration and sympathy.

A special commissioner has been appointed to supervise the carrying out of this project. Mrs. Julia W. Henshaw, a Vancouver lady, well known and a public speaker who will during the present month deliver addresses on this subject to the public of the chief cities from Vancouver to Montreal, is an accredited official representative of all the women's organizations of the country. After this brief campaign is over she will go to England on Dec. 1st along with the gifts to supervise their distribution. Her personal presence will heighten the sense of symbolism of the gift as personal expression of the good will of the people of Canada for our soldiers. The time available for this campaign is very brief. One speaker, however
